Contents

Preface ix
Acknowledgments xix

Section 1: The Big Picture 1
1. Issues and Tensions in the Assessment of Mathematical Proficiency 3
   ALAN H. SCHOENFELD
2. Aims of Mathematics Education 17
   JUDITH A. RAMALEY
3. The No Child Left Behind Act: Political Context and National Goals 23
   SUSAN SCLAFLANI

Section 2: Perspectives on Mathematical Proficiency 29
   R. JAMES MILGRAM
5. What Is Mathematical Proficiency and How Can It Be Assessed? 59
   ALAN H. SCHOENFELD

Section 3: What Does Assessment Assess? Issues and Examples 75
   HUGH BURKHARDT
7. Aspects of the Art of Assessment Design 99
   JAN DE LANGE
8. Mathematical Proficiency for Citizenship 113
   BERNARD L. MADISON
9. Learning from Assessment 125
   RICHARD ASKEY
10. When Assessment Guides Instruction: Silicon Valley’s Mathematics Assessment Collaborative 137
    DAVID FOSTER, PENDRED NOYCE, AND SARA SPIEGEL
Section 4: The Case of Algebra

11. Assessing the Strands of Student Proficiency in Elementary Algebra
   William G. McCallum

12. Making Meaning in Algebra: Examining Students’ Understandings and Misconceptions
   David Foster

13. Task Context and Assessment
   Ann Shannon

Section 5: What Do Assessments Assess? The Case of Fractions

14. Learning About Fractions from Assessment
   Linda Fisher

15. Assessing a Student’s Mathematical Knowledge by Way of Interview
   Deborah Loewenberg Ball with Brandon Peoples

16. Reflections on an Assessment Interview: What a Close Look at Student Understanding Can Reveal
   Alan H. Schoenfeld

Section 6: The Importance of Societal Context

17. Assessment in France
   Michèle Artigue

18. Assessment to Improve Learning in Mathematics: The BEAR Assessment System
   Mark Wilson and Claus Carstensen

19. English Learners and Mathematics Learning: Language Issues to Consider
   Lily Wong Fillmore

20. Beyond Words to Mathematical Content: Assessing English Learners in the Mathematics Classroom
   Judit Moschkovich

21. Assessment in the Real World: The Case of New York City
   Elizabeth Taleporos

   Elizabeth K. Stage

Epilogue: What Do We Need to Know? Items for a Research Agenda

About the Authors
Subject Index
Author Index
Task Index

Epilogue: What Do We Need to Know? Items for a Research Agenda

About the Authors
Subject Index
Author Index
Task Index